

6 - 7 September
9am to 4pm
Rob Oakeshott Lecture Theatre
20 Highfields Circuit
Port Macquarie

7 CPD
Points/Day

SEATING SERIES

DAY 1

ALL THINGS SEATING ASSESSMENT AND SEATING SOLUTIONS

- Learn and practice MAT evaluation skills
- Translate the assessment findings into product parameters (matching findings with product solutions)
- Understand and apply biomechanical principles related to the seated posture
- Develop critical thinking skills based on client Assessment
- Apply evidenced based knowledge to pressure care, product selection and equipment set-up
- Develop clinical documentation and justification skills for successful applications

REGISTRATION

This seminar is FREE.
Morning Tea and
Lunch provided.

Scan QR code to register.

DAY 2

ALL THINGS MOBILITY SOLUTIONS

- Differentiate models of manual wheelchairs, their features and benefits and key adjustment that affect seated posture and functional mobility. (hands-on lab applying outcome tools for clinical justification)
- Describe clinical reasoning to the selection of power wheelchair drive configurations with consideration to the person's body and weight distribution, environmental navigation and function
- Learn to assess and differentiate between power assist for manual wheelchairs and how to match your client to the product options

PRESENTERS

Lois Brown, MPT (US), ATP/SMS, National Clinical Education Manager

Nick Reginato, OT, ILS Wheelchair and Seating Specialist

Zach Dulovic, ILS Clinical Equipment Specialist, Community Care Team